THE RUGGED FRAME

Fully boxed, with 8 muscular crossmembers and large, cross-section frame rails. Comprised of high-strength steel, it's electrocoated with a durable protective shell that helps inhibit rust.

THE BODY AND BOX

Constructed of high-strength, military-grade, aluminum alloys,<sup>2</sup> the panels are hardened through heat treating for even greater strength. Plus, the aluminum alloy body and box don't rust and they resist corrosion.

LONG, WIDE REAR LEAF SPRINGS

Their length helps increase spring life for the long haul, and the rear spring bushings have been tuned with ride quality in mind. Spring width helps stabilize axle control, while balancing ride smoothness with best-in-class payload capability.<sup>3</sup>

CRASH ENERGY MANAGEMENT

A masterful mix of high-strength, military-grade aluminum alloys work with the high-strength-steel frame structure to manage crash/crush energy into the F-150 passenger compartment in certain front, side and rear impacts.

Payload Notes: Maximum capabilities shown are for properly equipped vehicles with required equipment and a 68kg driver. Weight of additional options, equipment, passengers and cargo must be deducted from this weight. For additional information, see your Ford Dealer. Towing Notes: Maximum loaded trailer weights shown. Do not exceed trailer weight of 2 268kg when towing with bumper only. The combined weight of the towing vehicle (including options, hitch, passengers and cargo) and the loaded trailer must not exceed the GCWR (Gross Combination Weight Rating). Trailer tongue load weight should be 10-15% of total loaded trailer weight. Make sure that the vehicle payload (reduced by option weight) will accommodate trailer tongue load weight and the weight of passengers and cargo added to the towing vehicle. The addition of trailer tongue load weight, and the weight of passengers and cargo, cannot cause vehicle weights to exceed the rear GAWR (Gross Axle Weight Rating) or GVWR (Gross Vehicle Weight Rating). These ratings can be found on the vehicle's Safety Compliance Certification Label. See the RV and Trailer Towing Guide for requirements, restrictions and 5th-wheel towing.
